

This Week in Science - April 6

Dear parents,

First and foremost, please let my students know that I miss them very much and will send videos in the weeks to follow.

The following is the lesson for this week. Please feel free to contact me via email (llopez@husd.k12.ca.us) to ask questions or submit student work.

Esta semana en ciencia - 6 de abril

Queridos padres,

Primeramente, por favor, hágales saber a mis alumnos que los extraño mucho y que enviaré videos en las próximas semanas.

Lo siguiente es la lección de esta semana. No dude en ponerse en contacto conmigo por correo electrónico (llopez@husd.k12.ca.us) para hacer preguntas o enviar trabajos de estudiantes.

Les pedí a los estudiantes que por favor dibujaran los siguientes cuerpos de agua y accidentes geográficos. Me gustaría que hicieran dos libros pequeños con ellos. Motívelos a agregar cualquier cuerpo de agua o accidentes geograficos a cada uno. Por ejemplo, podrían agregar una cueva o una montaña.

1. Océano 2. Mar 3. Bahía 4. Golfo 5. Lago 6. Estanque 7. Río 8. corriente 9. Barranco

1. Continente 2. Isla 3. Valle 4. Cañón 5. Duna de arena 6. Platea 7. Mesa 8. Archipiélago 9. Península

The image shows a worksheet titled "Landforms Labeling" with the instruction "Write the name of each landform." Below the title is a "Word Bank" containing the words: mountain, valley, plain, island, volcano, canyon, hill, and cave. There are eight illustrations of different landforms arranged in two rows of four. Each illustration has a blank line underneath it for labeling. The illustrations are: a brown mountain, a blue river in a canyon, a green hill, a green valley, a green plain with trees, a blue island in the ocean, a white mountain range, and a dark cave entrance. At the bottom right of the worksheet, there is a logo for "ink saving Eco" with a green leaf icon.
